		NA - 4	11	D
Tuesday, February 15, 2000 Get your metro pass! See pa		Metro le. We purchased	Hours I the "carte h	Days ebdomadaire	e" good for unlimted travel in Zones 1 and 2 for one week, beginning Monday and	d running through Sunda	y. Cost $12.50 U	S! We rode i	the metro mo	ore than twice a day! There is a Carte Paris Visite it. NOTE: they want you to have an extra passport-
• •	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·				r don't worry about it - no one asked to see ours.
Pantheon	Pl du Pantheon	Cardinal Lemoine	10A - 5:30P 12N2:30P	Daily	iron-framed dome, frescoes of Ste Genevieve, Crypt
Perraudin	157, rue St-Jacques	Luxembourg	, 7:30PM - 10PM	Tu-Sa, M dinner only	Prix Fixe (Lunch only 65F) homespun food to a packed crowd page 101 Cheap Eats GREAT!
Sainte Chappelle	4 Blvd du Palais	Cite	10AM - 5PM	Daily	built in 1248, one of greatest architectural masterpieces of the western world! The stained glass in the upper chapel is absolutely wonderful, even on a cloudy day! HIGHLY recommeded by Sandra & Roger Wiley for dinner. "The Carpenters" - zinc bar, sawdust. Next door is small museum that
Aux Charpentiers	10 rue Mabillion	Mabillon	L12-3, D7-11:30		displays scale models. Stick to your ribs fare. Lunch prix fixe 125F/Dinner 155F. Cheap Eats page 105. We had a wonderful dinner here our first night!
Wednesday, February 16, 2	2000				A working man's bar, peanuts at the bar, wine by the glass Crowded at
Le Cochon a L'Oreille	15 Rue Montmartre	Les Halles			lunch but worth it! Be warned the booths are quite small. Check out the tile scenes behind the bar - one is the former market at Les Halles!
A Simon	36 Rue Etienne Marcel and 48 Rue Monmartre	Les Halles	8:30-6:30	M-Sa	Professional serving dishes Food Lover's Guide page 347. More china than anything else, 48 Rue Montmatre is their baking implement shop. If you have the time browse through quickly.
La Bovida	36 Rue Monmartre	Les Halles	7:30-6	M-F, Sa AM only	no credit cards, kitchen shop for professionals Food Lovers Guide page 345 (We felt this wasn't worth the effort)
E. Dehillerin	18-20 Rue Coquilliere	Les Halles	8-12:30, 2-6	M-Sa	V/MC: professional cookware, copper. Do not miss this! See Mr. Franck - he speaks English and helped Mike and Glenn! Food Lover's Guide to Paris pg 345
M.O.R.A	13 Rue Monmartre	Les Halles	8:30-5:45	M-F, Sa AM only	books, large assortment of cooking tools Food Lovers Guide page 346 (We felt this wasn't worth the effort) city has made attempts to spiff up this run down market - perfect pastries at Stohrer no 51. Food Lover's Guide page 198 We felt the gude book was a little hard on this market street. We thought it was
Rue Montorgeuil	Beginning at Rue Rambuteau	Les Halles	9-1, 4-7	T-Sa	really cute and not run-down at all! Janice Nuckolls' Button Store near St Eustache. In addition to buttons,
La Droguerie	Rue du Jour	Les Halles	10:30-6:45	T-Sa	this shop specializes in dress trims, yarns and ribbons. Very little if any English spoken here. One of Paris' most beautiful churches with gothic plan and Renaissance decoration. It took 105 years to build (from 1532 to 1637). Moliere was buried here, Marquise de Pompadour, official
St-Eustache	Pl du Jour	Les Halles	9A-7P	Daily	mistress of Louis XV was baptized here as was Cardinal Richelieu. One of its radial chapels has been converted to a Chapel dedicated to the fruit and vegetable markets of Les Halles. This is a little cutsey! In the 1960's and 70's, this contemporary shopping and leisure center replaced the giant umbrella-like market pavilions that were home to the Forum des Halles Musee du Louvre		, , ,	9AM-10P M	W thru Su	meat, vegetable and fruit market that thrived since 1183. And, this is progress? Don't miss the Mona Lisa, Venus de Milo, Napoleon's Apartments in the Objets d'Arts.
Louvre des Antiquaires	2 Place du Palais Royal		11AM-7PM		dept store converted to art and antique galleries. Spectacular very expensive museum-quality antiques. Of course, nothing is priced in the more than 250 individual shops leading to the assumption that everything was expensive!
Jardin du Palais Royal		Palais Royal			city haven garden bordered by shops. Shops are interesting, but the use of space, the garden, the sculpture is very interesting! Table Linens "shop for dreamers". Actually located in Jardin du Palais,
Muriel Grateau Boutique	29 rue de Valois	, , ,	10AM-7P M L 12 - 3	M thru Sa	this shop has elegant and very expensive table and bed linens. Worth a walk-through! A few bargains among their discontinued items.
L'Epi d"Or Thursday, February 17, 200	25 rue Jean-Jacques Rousseau	Louvre		M-F, S D only	Cheap Eats (page 49) Best value Prix Fixe - served only til 9 PM - guaranteed to fill you to your toes! We had a very good dinner here!
Aux Gourmets des Arts Tel:01-43-26-29-44	15 rue Git-le-Coeur		L12-2, D7-11	M thru Sa	Food better than most in vicinity - don't get snagged by the menus in five languages! Lunch prix fixe is 75F. Better to get a pichet of house white or red wine pg 106 Great husband and wife team! We had a good dinner here - Bev Lacy loved the caramel sauce! Towers open 10 - 5:15 (amd charge for towers) Rose windows, flying
Notre Dame	PI du Parvis-Notre Dame	Cite	8AM - 6:45PM	Daily	Towers open 10 - 5:15 (amd charge for towers) Rose windows, flying buttresses, gargoyles. Begun in 1163, took 170 years to finish. Windows are fantastic and the sun came out for a bit while we were inside! great views of east end of cathedral A Little barren in winter but great
The Square Jean XXIII Marche aux Fleurs et			8AM -		views of the exterior! one of last remaining flower markets in Paris (Sunday 8-7 houses bird market) Since it was winter, few vendors open. In spring and summer
Oiseaux	PI Louis-Lepine	Cite, Ponte	6PM	M thru Sa	must be fantastic!
Pont Neuf	10 ruo de la Mannaia	Neuf	0:204 70		oldest bridge in Paris Has a great view of the river! T & F open til 8:30P favorite spot for hard to find kitchen gadgets (third floor of building 1) Wonderful department store! The panoramic view of the city was great! Take the elevator to the 9th floor. In good weather they have a terrace café. The Amnesty International
La Samaritaine Quai Voltaire	19 rue de la Monnaie	Rue du Bac		M thru Sa	awareness exhibit is very graphic! attractive 18th C houses noted for its former residents, now home to some of the most important antiques dealers in Paris. Shopping here, along Rue de Bac and Rue Jacob, recommended by Janice Nuckolls.
St Germain des Pres	3 PI St Germain de Pres		8AM-7:30 PM	Daily	Paris oldest church, Descartes and king of Poland buried here. Naturally, I was impressed!
Boulevard St-Germain		Pres, Mabillon, Odeon St Germain de			Left bank's most celebrated thoroughfare - bold stroke of 19th century urban planning Shopping here was recommended by Janice Nuckolls . Short street dates back to Middle Ages still has houses from 17th and
Rue du Dragon		Pres St Germain de	7:30AM -		18th centuries. Ironwork balconies café, rendezvous of the literary and intellectual elite. Frequented by
Les Deux Magots Café de Flore	170 Blvd St Germain 172 Blvd St Germain	Pres St Germain de Pres	1:30PM 7AM - 1:30AM	Daily Daily	Hemingway et al. Good place for old-fashioned hot chocolate. classic art deco interior, Jean-Paul Sartre and Simone de Beauvoir frequented here Food Lovers Guide page 369
Le Procope	13 Rue de L'Ancienne Comedie	Odeon	11AM - 1AM 10AM - 1PM,	,	claims to be world's first coffeehouse. Now a restaurant. Was frequented by Voltaire and Napoleon.
Boutique le Flore	26 rue St Benoit	St Germain de Pres	2PM-7:30 P	M thru Sa	table service and café accoutrements: coffee cups, floor length waiters' aprons, memorabilia from café de Flore next door
Musee d'Orsay	1 Rue de Bellechasse		10AM - 6PM 10AM - 9:45 PM	T, W, F, Sa	last admission 30 min before closing lots of good stuff, impressionists, Rodin sculpture, arts from 1848 to 1914
			9AM - 6PM	Su	Impressionists on the 4th floor! Rent the audio!
Friday, February 18, 2000
Musee de Cluny	6 Pl Paul-Painleve	Cluny, St Michel, Odeon Champs	9:15A-5:05 P	W thru M	gallo-roman ruins incorporated into a medieval mansion, fine collection od medieval arts and crafts - Lady with Unicorn, Gallo-Roman Baths, Gallo-Roman Frigidarium. We enjoyed this a great deal. Had no idea there are 6 tapestries of the Lady and the Unicorn.
Grand Palais	PorteA Avenue	Elysees	4	VV till d lvi
	Eisenhower	Clemenceau	10A-8P	Th-M W10-10	Eyewitness Guide pg 206 According to Rick Bridgforth Rue St Honore has "The Best Shopping!" Maxim's is on Rue Royale before you get to St Honore. Across the
Between PI de la Concorde and Madeleine Church		Tuileries, Concorde, Madeleine	10A-8P	Th-M W10-10	According to Rick Bridgforth Rue St Honore has "The Best Shopping!" Maxim's is on Rue Royale before you get to St Honore. Across the street is La Chaume - the most wonderful flowers! Polo has a shop across from Madeleine Church. From Polo shop, walk around the church to the right, turn down street, on your left will be a mall with great shops. Note for Pat - go across street from Polo shop, around left side of and Madeleine Church	Rue Royale intersects with Rue St Honore 19 Place de la	Tuileries, Concorde, Madeleine		Th-M W10-10	According to Rick Bridgforth Rue St Honore has "The Best Shopping!" Maxim's is on Rue Royale before you get to St Honore. Across the street is La Chaume - the most wonderful flowers! Polo has a shop across from Madeleine Church. From Polo shop, walk around the church to the right, turn down street, on your left will be a mall with great shops. Note for Pat - go across street from Polo shop, around left side of square, through passage to a Swiss shop. Get a black leather band with cow on it for Rick's new puppy as a collar. 10 1/2 inches to a hole. fresh truffles through March Food Lovers Guide page 323 Pat thought and Madeleine Church La Maison de la Truffe	Rue Royale intersects with Rue St Honore 19 Place de la Madeleine	Tuileries, Concorde, Madeleine Madeleine Havre-		Th-M W10-10 M-Sa T-Sa & M	According to Rick Bridgforth Rue St Honore has "The Best Shopping!" Maxim's is on Rue Royale before you get to St Honore. Across the street is La Chaume - the most wonderful flowers! Polo has a shop across from Madeleine Church. From Polo shop, walk around the church to the right, turn down street, on your left will be a mall with great shops. Note for Pat - go across street from Polo shop, around left side of square, through passage to a Swiss shop. Get a black leather band with cow on it for Rick's new puppy as a collar. 10 1/2 inches to a hole. fresh truffles through March Food Lovers Guide page 323 Pat thought it smelled funny in here! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food and Madeleine Church La Maison de la Truffe La Carpe Hediard	Rue Royale intersects with Rue St Honore 19 Place de la Madeleine 14 Rue Tronchet 21 Place de Madeleine	Tuileries, Concorde, Madeleine Madeleine Havre- Caumartin Madeleine	9A-8P 9:30A-6:45 P 8A-10P	Th-M W10-10	According to Rick Bridgforth Rue St Honore has "The Best Shopping!" Maxim's is on Rue Royale before you get to St Honore. Across the street is La Chaume - the most wonderful flowers! Polo has a shop across from Madeleine Church. From Polo shop, walk around the church to the right, turn down street, on your left will be a mall with great shops. Note for Pat - go across street from Polo shop, around left side of square, through passage to a Swiss shop. Get a black leather band with cow on it for Rick's new puppy as a collar. 10 1/2 inches to a hole. fresh truffles through March Food Lovers Guide page 323 Pat thought it smelled funny in here! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 360 Not as good as other places we've been! Gourmet cheeses, marzipan, spices, vegetables! JUST GO BY FOR THE EXPERIENCE! WOULD LOVE TO SEE ONE IN RICHMOND!
and Madeleine Church La Maison de la Truffe La Carpe	Rue Royale intersects with Rue St Honore 19 Place de la Madeleine 14 Rue Tronchet 21 Place de Madeleine 8 Blvd de Madeleine	Tuileries, Concorde, Madeleine Madeleine Havre- Caumartin Madeleine Madeleine	9A-8P 9:30A-6:45 P 8A-10P 9:30 -7	Th-M W10-10 M-Sa T-Sa & M afternoon	According to Rick Bridgforth Rue St Honore has "The Best Shopping!" Maxim's is on Rue Royale before you get to St Honore. Across the street is La Chaume - the most wonderful flowers! Polo has a shop across from Madeleine Church. From Polo shop, walk around the church to the right, turn down street, on your left will be a mall with great shops. Note for Pat - go across street from Polo shop, around left side of square, through passage to a Swiss shop. Get a black leather band with cow on it for Rick's new puppy as a collar. 10 1/2 inches to a hole. fresh truffles through March Food Lovers Guide page 323 Pat thought it smelled funny in here! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 360 Not as good as other places we've been! Gourmet cheeses, marzipan, spices, vegetables! JUST GO BY FOR THE EXPERIENCE! WOULD LOVE TO SEE ONE IN RICHMOND! p 305 & 306 Food Lover's Guide to Paris are here!
and Madeleine Church La Maison de la Truffe La Carpe Hediard La Maison du Chocolat	Rue Royale intersects with Rue St Honore 19 Place de la Madeleine 14 Rue Tronchet 21 Place de Madeleine 8 Blvd de Madeleine	Tuileries, Concorde, Madeleine Madeleine Havre- Caumartin Madeleine Madeleine elegant and chic	9A-8P 9:30A-6:45 P 8A-10P 9:30 -7 area! A lot of	Th-M W10-10 M-Sa T-Sa & M afternoon	According to Rick Bridgforth Rue St Honore has "The Best Shopping!" Maxim's is on Rue Royale before you get to St Honore. Across the street is La Chaume - the most wonderful flowers! Polo has a shop across from Madeleine Church. From Polo shop, walk around the church to the right, turn down street, on your left will be a mall with great shops. Note for Pat - go across street from Polo shop, around left side of square, through passage to a Swiss shop. Get a black leather band with cow on it for Rick's new puppy as a collar. 10 1/2 inches to a hole. fresh truffles through March Food Lovers Guide page 323 Pat thought it smelled funny in here! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 360 Not as good as other places we've been! Gourmet cheeses, marzipan, spices, vegetables! JUST GO BY FOR THE EXPERIENCE! WOULD LOVE TO SEE ONE IN RICHMOND! p 305 & 306 Food Lover's Guide to Paris
and Madeleine Church La Maison de la Truffe La Carpe Hediard La Maison du Chocolat All along this area are the de	Rue Royale intersects with Rue St Honore 19 Place de la Madeleine 14 Rue Tronchet 21 Place de Madeleine 8 Blvd de Madeleine esigner's shops etc. Very 5 rue Herold	Tuileries, Concorde, Madeleine Madeleine Havre- Caumartin Madeleine Madeleine elegant and chic	9A-8P 9:30A-6:45 P 8A-10P 9:30 -7 area! A lot o	M-Sa T-Sa & M afternoon M - Sa of embassies	According to Rick Bridgforth Rue St Honore has "The Best Shopping!" Maxim's is on Rue Royale before you get to St Honore. Across the street is La Chaume - the most wonderful flowers! Polo has a shop across from Madeleine Church. From Polo shop, walk around the church to the right, turn down street, on your left will be a mall with great shops. Note for Pat - go across street from Polo shop, around left side of square, through passage to a Swiss shop. Get a black leather band with cow on it for Rick's new puppy as a collar. 10 1/2 inches to a hole. fresh truffles through March Food Lovers Guide page 323 Pat thought it smelled funny in here! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 360 Not as good as other places we've been! Gourmet cheeses, marzipan, spices, vegetables! JUST GO BY FOR THE EXPERIENCE! WOULD LOVE TO SEE ONE IN RICHMOND! p 305 & 306 Food Lover's Guide to Paris are here! A vegetarian restaurant we got out of Cheap Eats! The food was only OK and the service poor - they were overwhelmed by a group as large as ours! I would skip this one! First thing in the morning, we all split up. Mike and Glenn went to E. Dehillerin to make their purchases. Pat went off to La Samarataine.
and Madeleine Church La Maison de la Truffe La Carpe Hediard La Maison du Chocolat All along this area are the de Entre Ciel et Terre	Rue Royale intersects with Rue St Honore 19 Place de la Madeleine 14 Rue Tronchet 21 Place de Madeleine 8 Blvd de Madeleine esigner's shops etc. Very 5 rue Herold	Tuileries, Concorde, Madeleine Madeleine Havre- Caumartin Madeleine Madeleine elegant and chic	9A-8P 9:30A-6:45 P 8A-10P 9:30 -7 area! A lot o	M-Sa T-Sa & M afternoon M - Sa of embassies	According to Rick Bridgforth Rue St Honore has "The Best Shopping!" Maxim's is on Rue Royale before you get to St Honore. Across the street is La Chaume - the most wonderful flowers! Polo has a shop across from Madeleine Church. From Polo shop, walk around the church to the right, turn down street, on your left will be a mall with great shops. Note for Pat - go across street from Polo shop, around left side of square, through passage to a Swiss shop. Get a black leather band with cow on it for Rick's new puppy as a collar. 10 1/2 inches to a hole. fresh truffles through March Food Lovers Guide page 323 Pat thought it smelled funny in here! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 360 Not as good as other places we've been! Gourmet cheeses, marzipan, spices, vegetables! JUST GO BY FOR THE EXPERIENCE! WOULD LOVE TO SEE ONE IN RICHMOND! p 305 & 306 Food Lover's Guide to Paris are here! A vegetarian restaurant we got out of Cheap Eats! The food was only OK and the service poor - they were overwhelmed by a group as large as ours! I would skip this one! First thing in the morning, we all split up. Mike and Glenn went to E. Dehillerin to make their purchases. Pat went off to La Samarataine. Kimberly went to the Eiffel Tower. We all met back at hotel by noon for our next day of fun! History of Paris, rooms also decorated in period authenticity. Go in AM
and Madeleine Church La Maison de la Truffe La Carpe Hediard La Maison du Chocolat All along this area are the de Entre Ciel et Terre	Rue Royale intersects with Rue St Honore 19 Place de la Madeleine 14 Rue Tronchet 21 Place de Madeleine 8 Blvd de Madeleine esigner's shops etc. Very 5 rue Herold	Tuileries, Concorde, Madeleine Madeleine Havre- Caumartin Madeleine Madeleine elegant and chic	9A-8P 9:30A-6:45 P 8A-10P 9:30 -7 area! A lot o	M-Sa T-Sa & M afternoon M - Sa of embassies	According to Rick Bridgforth Rue St Honore has "The Best Shopping!" Maxim's is on Rue Royale before you get to St Honore. Across the street is La Chaume - the most wonderful flowers! Polo has a shop across from Madeleine Church. From Polo shop, walk around the church to the right, turn down street, on your left will be a mall with great shops. Note for Pat - go across street from Polo shop, around left side of square, through passage to a Swiss shop. Get a black leather band with cow on it for Rick's new puppy as a collar. 10 1/2 inches to a hole. fresh truffles through March Food Lovers Guide page 323 Pat thought it smelled funny in here! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 360 Not as good as other places we've been! Gourmet cheeses, marzipan, spices, vegetables! JUST GO BY FOR THE EXPERIENCE! WOULD LOVE TO SEE ONE IN RICHMOND! p 305 & 306 Food Lover's Guide to Paris are here! A vegetarian restaurant we got out of Cheap Eats! The food was only OK and the service poor - they were overwhelmed by a group as large as ours! I would skip this one! First thing in the morning, we all split up. Mike and Glenn went to E. Dehillerin to make their purchases. Pat went off to La Samarataine. Kimberly went to the Eiffel Tower. We all met back at hotel by noon for our next day of fun! History of Paris, rooms also decorated in period authenticity. Go in AM however, some rooms close in afternoon if they lack volunteers. This is a do not miss! Eyewitness Guide p96-7
and Madeleine Church La Maison de la Truffe La Carpe Hediard La Maison du Chocolat All along this area are the de Entre Ciel et Terre Saturday, February 19, 200 Musee Carnavalet	Rue Royale intersects with Rue St Honore 19 Place de la Madeleine 14 Rue Tronchet 21 Place de Madeleine 8 Blvd de Madeleine esigner's shops etc. Very 5 rue Herold	Tuileries, Concorde, Madeleine Madeleine Havre- Caumartin Madeleine Madeleine elegant and chic Louvre-Rivoli, Bourse	9A-8P 9:30A-6:45 P 8A-10P 9:30 -7 area! A lot of the second of the	M-Sa T-Sa & M afternoon M - Sa of embassies	According to Rick Bridgforth Rue St Honore has "The Best Shopping!" Maxim's is on Rue Royale before you get to St Honore. Across the street is La Chaume - the most wonderful flowers! Polo has a shop across from Madeleine Church. From Polo shop, walk around the church to the right, turn down street, on your left will be a mall with great shops. Note for Pat - go across street from Polo shop, around left side of square, through passage to a Swiss shop. Get a black leather band with cow on it for Rick's new puppy as a collar. 10 1/2 inches to a hole. fresh truffles through March Food Lovers Guide page 323 Pat thought it smelled funny in here! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 360 Not as good as other places we've been! Gourmet cheeses, marzipan, spices, vegetables! JUST GO BY FOR THE EXPERIENCE! WOULD LOVE TO SEE ONE IN RICHMOND! p 305 & 306 Food Lover's Guide to Paris are here! A vegetarian restaurant we got out of Cheap Eats! The food was only OK and the service poor - they were overwhelmed by a group as large as ours! I would skip this one! First thing in the morning, we all split up. Mike and Glenn went to E. Dehillerin to make their purchases. Pat went off to La Samarataine. Kimberly went to the Eiffel Tower. We all met back at hotel by noon for our next day of fun! History of Paris, rooms also decorated in period authenticity. Go in AM however, some rooms close in afternoon if they lack volunteers. This is
and Madeleine Church La Maison de la Truffe La Carpe Hediard La Maison du Chocolat All along this area are the de Entre Ciel et Terre Saturday, February 19, 200 Musee Carnavalet The Marais	Rue Royale intersects with Rue St Honore 19 Place de la Madeleine 14 Rue Tronchet 21 Place de Madeleine 8 Blvd de Madeleine esigner's shops etc. Very 5 rue Herold	Tuileries, Concorde, Madeleine Madeleine Havre- Caumartin Madeleine Madeleine elegant and chic Louvre-Rivoli, Bourse	9A-8P 9:30A-6:45 P 8A-10P 9:30 -7 area! A lot of the second of the	M-Sa T-Sa & M afternoon M - Sa of embassies	According to Rick Bridgforth Rue St Honore has "The Best Shopping!" Maxim's is on Rue Royale before you get to St Honore. Across the street is La Chaume - the most wonderful flowers! Polo has a shop across from Madeleine Church. From Polo shop, walk around the church to the right, turn down street, on your left will be a mall with great shops. Note for Pat - go across street from Polo shop, around left side of square, through passage to a Swiss shop. Get a black leather band with cow on it for Rick's new puppy as a collar. 10 1/2 inches to a hole. fresh truffles through March Food Lovers Guide page 323 Pat thought it smelled funny in here! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 360 Not as good as other places we've been! Gourmet cheeses, marzipan, spices, vegetables! JUST GO BY FOR THE EXPERIENCE! WOULD LOVE TO SEE ONE IN RICHMOND! p 305 & 306 Food Lover's Guide to Paris s are here! A vegetarian restaurant we got out of Cheap Eats! The food was only OK and the service poor - they were overwhelmed by a group as large as ours! I would skip this one! First thing in the morning, we all split up. Mike and Glenn went to E. Dehillerin to make their purchases. Pat went off to La Samarataine. Kimberly went to the Eiffel Tower. We all met back at hotel by noon for our next day of fun! History of Paris, rooms also decorated in period authenticity. Go in AM however, some rooms close in afternoon if they lack volunteers. This is a do not miss! Eyewitness Guide p96-7 Wonderful area to walk and gawk once the site of jousting and tournaments, a square of perfect
and Madeleine Church La Maison de la Truffe La Carpe Hediard La Maison du Chocolat All along this area are the de Entre Ciel et Terre Saturday, February 19, 200 Musee Carnavalet The Marais Place des Vosges	Rue Royale intersects with Rue St Honore 19 Place de la Madeleine 14 Rue Tronchet 21 Place de Madeleine 8 Blvd de Madeleine esigner's shops etc. Very 5 rue Herold 23 rue de Sevigne 54 avenue Emile-Zola	Tuileries, Concorde, Madeleine Madeleine Havre- Caumartin Madeleine elegant and chic Louvre-Rivoli, Bourse St Paul Charles-	9A-8P 9:30A-6:45 P 8A-10P 9:30 -7 area! A lot of the second of the	M-Sa T-Sa & M afternoon M - Sa of embassies M-F Tu-Sun M-F; Sa Dinner	According to Rick Bridgforth Rue St Honore has "The Best Shopping!" Maxim's is on Rue Royale before you get to St Honore. Across the street is La Chaume - the most wonderful flowers! Polo has a shop across from Madeleine Church. From Polo shop, walk around the church to the right, turn down street, on your left will be a mall with great shops. Note for Pat - go across street from Polo shop, around left side of square, through passage to a Swiss shop. Get a black leather band with cow on it for Rick's new puppy as a collar. 10 1/2 inches to a hole. fresh truffles through March Food Lovers Guide page 323 Pat thought it smelled funny in here! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 360 Not as good as other places we've been! Gourmet cheeses, marzipan, spices, vegetables! JUST GO BY FOR THE EXPERIENCE! WOULD LOVE TO SEE ONE IN RICHMOND! p 305 & 306 Food Lover's Guide to Paris are here! A vegetarian restaurant we got out of Cheap Eats! The food was only OK and the service poor - they were overwhelmed by a group as large as ours! I would skip this one! First thing in the morning, we all split up. Mike and Glenn went to E. Dehillerin to make their purchases. Pat went off to La Samarataine. Kimberly went to the Eiffel Tower. We all met back at hotel by noon for our next day of fun! History of Paris, rooms also decorated in period authenticity. Go in AM however, some rooms close in afternoon if they lack volunteers. This is a do not miss! Eyewitness Guide p96-7 Wonderful area to walk and gawk once the site of jousting and tournaments, a square of perfect symmetry We had a great meal here within walking distance of our hote!! Cheap Eats, page194.
and Madeleine Church La Maison de la Truffe La Carpe Hediard La Maison du Chocolat All along this area are the de Entre Ciel et Terre Saturday, February 19, 200 Musee Carnavalet The Marais Place des Vosges Oh! Duo!	Rue Royale intersects with Rue St Honore 19 Place de la Madeleine 14 Rue Tronchet 21 Place de Madeleine 8 Blvd de Madeleine esigner's shops etc. Very 5 rue Herold 23 rue de Sevigne 54 avenue Emile-Zola	Tuileries, Concorde, Madeleine Madeleine Havre- Caumartin Madeleine elegant and chic Louvre-Rivoli, Bourse St Paul Charles- Michels	9A-8P 9:30A-6:45 P 8A-10P 9:30 -7 area! A lot of the second of the	Th-M W10-10 M-Sa T-Sa & M afternoon M - Sa of embassies M-F Tu-Sun M-F; Sa Dinner only	According to Rick Bridgforth Rue St Honore has "The Best Shopping!" Maxim's is on Rue Royale before you get to St Honore. Across the street is La Chaume - the most wonderful flowers! Polo has a shop across from Madeleine Church. From Polo shop, walk around the church to the right, turn down street, on your left will be a mall with great shops. Note for Pat - go across street from Polo shop, around left side of square, through passage to a Swiss shop. Get a black leather band with cow on it for Rick's new puppy as a collar. 10 1/2 inches to a hole. fresh truffles through March Food Lovers Guide page 323 Pat thought it smelled funny in here! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 360 Not as good as other places we've been! Gourmet cheeses, marzipan, spices, vegetables! JUST GO BY FOR THE EXPERIENCE! WOULD LOVE TO SEE ONE IN RICHMOND! p 305 & 306 Food Lover's Guide to Paris are here! A vegetarian restaurant we got out of Cheap Eats! The food was only OK and the service poor - they were overwhelmed by a group as large as ours! I would skip this one! First thing in the morning, we all split up. Mike and Glenn went to E. Dehillerin to make their purchases. Pat went off to La Samarataine. Kimberly went to the Eiffel Tower. We all met back at hotel by noon for our next day of fun! History of Paris, rooms also decorated in period authenticity. Go in AM however, some rooms close in afternoon if they lack volunteers. This is a do not miss! Eyewitness Guide p96-7 Wonderful area to walk and gawk once the site of jousting and tournaments, a square of perfect symmetry We had a great meal here within walking distance of our hote!! Cheap
and Madeleine Church La Maison de la Truffe La Carpe Hediard La Maison du Chocolat All along this area are the de Entre Ciel et Terre Saturday, February 19, 200 Musee Carnavalet The Marais Place des Vosges Oh! Duo! Sunday, February 20, 2000	Rue Royale intersects with Rue St Honore 19 Place de la Madeleine 14 Rue Tronchet 21 Place de Madeleine 8 Blvd de Madeleine esigner's shops etc. Very 5 rue Herold 23 rue de Sevigne 54 avenue Emile-Zola	Tuileries, Concorde, Madeleine Madeleine Havre- Caumartin Madeleine elegant and chic Louvre-Rivoli, Bourse St Paul Charles- Michels Dupleix, La Mott	9A-8P 9:30A-6:45 P 8A-10P 9:30 -7 area! A lot of the second of the	Th-M W10-10 M-Sa T-Sa & M afternoon M - Sa of embassies M-F Tu-Sun M-F; Sa Dinner only	According to Rick Bridgforth Rue St Honore has "The Best Shopping!" Maxim's is on Rue Royale before you get to St Honore. Across the street is La Chaume - the most wonderful flowers! Polo has a shop across from Madeleine Church. From Polo shop, walk around the church to the right, turn down street, on your left will be a mall with great shops. Note for Pat - go across street from Polo shop, around left side of square, through passage to a Swiss shop. Get a black leather band with cow on it for Rick's new puppy as a collar. 10 1/2 inches to a hole. fresh truffles through March Food Lovers Guide page 323 Pat thought it smelled funny in here! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 360 Not as good as other places we've been! Gourmet cheeses, marzipan, spices, vegetables! JUST GO BY FOR THE EXPERIENCE! WOULD LOVE TO SEE ONE IN RICHMOND! p 305 & 306 Food Lover's Guide to Paris are here! A vegetarian restaurant we got out of Cheap Eats! The food was only OK and the service poor - they were overwhelmed by a group as large as ours! I would skip this one! First thing in the morning, we all split up. Mike and Glenn went to E. Dehillerin to make their purchases. Pat went off to La Samarataine. Kimberly went to the Eiffel Tower. We all met back at hotel by noon for our next day of fun! History of Paris, rooms also decorated in period authenticity. Go in AM however, some rooms close in afternoon if they lack volunteers. This is a do not miss! Eyewitness Guide p96-7 Wonderful area to walk and gawk once the site of jousting and tournaments, a square of perfect symmetry We had a great meal here within walking distance of our hotel! Cheap Eats, page194. A roving market set under the elevated Metro, full of fruit, vegetables, flowers, meats, fish, bakery items. Sunday is better than Wednesday! called the Marche Parisien de la Creation - some of the artists are Americans - everything from textile and pottery to oil, acrylic, and watercolor Statue (Separation of a Couple)
and Madeleine Church La Maison de la Truffe La Carpe Hediard La Maison du Chocolat All along this area are the de Entre Ciel et Terre Saturday, February 19, 200 Musee Carnavalet The Marais Place des Vosges Oh! Duo! Sunday, February 20, 2000 Roving Market Artist's Market	Rue Royale intersects with Rue St Honore 19 Place de la Madeleine 14 Rue Tronchet 21 Place de Madeleine 8 Blvd de Madeleine esigner's shops etc. Very 5 rue Herold 23 rue de Sevigne 54 avenue Emile-Zola Along Blvd de Grenelle Blvd Edgar Quinet	Tuileries, Concorde, Madeleine Madeleine Havre- Caumartin Madeleine elegant and chic Louvre-Rivoli, Bourse St Paul Charles- Michels Dupleix, La Mott Edgar Quinet	9A-8P 9:30A-6:45 P 8A-10P 9:30 -7 area! A lot of the second of the	Th-M W10-10 M-Sa T-Sa & M afternoon M - Sa of embassies M-F Tu-Sun Wed, Sun Every Sunday	According to Rick Bridgforth Rue St Honore has "The Best Shopping!" Maxim's is on Rue Royale before you get to St Honore. Across the street is La Chaume - the most wonderful flowers! Polo has a shop across from Madeleine Church. From Polo shop, walk around the church to the right, turn down street, on your left will be a mall with great shops. Note for Pat - go across street from Polo shop, around left side of square, through passage to a Swiss shop. Get a black leather band with cow on it for Rick's new puppy as a collar. 10 1/2 inches to a hole. fresh truffles through March Food Lovers Guide page 323 Pat thought it smelled funny in here! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 360 Not as good as other places we've been! Gourmet cheeses, marzipan, spices, vegetables! JUST GO BY FOR THE EXPERIENCE! WOULD LOVE TO SEE ONE IN RICHMOND! p 305 & 306 Food Lover's Guide to Paris s are here! A vegetarian restaurant we got out of Cheap Eats! The food was only OK and the service poor - they were overwhelmed by a group as large as ours! I would skip this one! First thing in the morning, we all split up. Mike and Glenn went to E. Dehillerin to make their purchases. Pat went off to La Samarataine. Kimberly went to the Eiffel Tower. We all met back at hotel by noon for our next day of fun! History of Paris, rooms also decorated in period authenticity. Go in AM however, some rooms close in afternoon if they lack volunteers. This is a do not miss! Eyewitness Guide p96-7 Wonderful area to walk and gawk once the site of jousting and tournaments, a square of perfect symmetry We had a great meal here within walking distance of our hotel! Cheap Eats, page194. A roving market set under the elevated Metro, full of fruit, vegetables, flowers, meats, fish, bakery items. Sunday is better than Wednesday! called the Marche Parisien de la Creation - some of the artists are Americans - everything from textile and pottery to oil, acrylic, and watercolor Statue (Separation of a Couple
and Madeleine Church La Maison de la Truffe La Carpe Hediard La Maison du Chocolat All along this area are the de Entre Ciel et Terre Saturday, February 19, 200 Musee Carnavalet The Marais Place des Vosges Oh! Duo! Sunday, February 20, 2000 Roving Market Artist's Market Cimetiere du Montparnasse	Rue Royale intersects with Rue St Honore 19 Place de la Madeleine 14 Rue Tronchet 21 Place de Madeleine 8 Blvd de Madeleine esigner's shops etc. Very 5 rue Herold 23 rue de Sevigne 54 avenue Emile-Zola Along Blvd de Grenelle Blvd Edgar Quinet 3 Bl Edgar Quinet	Tuileries, Concorde, Madeleine Madeleine Havre- Caumartin Madeleine elegant and chic Louvre-Rivoli, Bourse St Paul Charles- Michels Dupleix, La Mott	9A-8P 9:30A-6:45 P 8A-10P 9:30 -7 area! A lot of the second of the	Th-M W10-10 M-Sa T-Sa & M afternoon M - Sa of embassies M-F Tu-Sun Wed, Sun Every Sunday	According to Rick Bridgforth Rue St Honore has "The Best Shopping!" Maxim's is on Rue Royale before you get to St Honore. Across the street is La Chaume - the most wonderful flowers! Polo has a shop across from Madeleine Church. From Polo shop, walk around the church to the right, turn down street, on your left will be a mall with great shops. Note for Pat - go across street from Polo shop, around left side of square, through passage to a Swiss shop. Get a black leather band with cow on it for Rick's new puppy as a collar. 10 1/2 inches to a hole. fresh truffles through March Food Lovers Guide page 323 Pat thought it smelled funny in here! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 360 Not as good as other places we've been! Gournet cheeses, marzipan, spices, vegetables! JUST GO BY FOR THE EXPERIENCE! WOULD LOVE TO SEE ONE IN RICHMOND! p 305 & 306 Food Lover's Guide to Paris are here! A vegetarian restaurant we got out of Cheap Eats! The food was only OK and the service poor - they were overwhelmed by a group as large as ours! I would skip this one! First thing in the morning, we all split up. Mike and Glenn went to E. Dehillerin to make their purchases. Pat went off to La Samarataine. Kimberly went to the Eiffel Tower. We all met back at hotel by noon for our next day of fun! History of Paris, rooms also decorated in period authenticity. Go in AM however, some rooms close in afternoon if they lack volunteers. This is a do not miss! Eyewitness Guide p96-7 Wonderful area to walk and gawk once the site of jousting and tournaments, a square of perfect symmetry We had a great meal here within walking distance of our hotel! Cheap Eats, page194. A roving market set under the elevated Metro, full of fruit, vegetables, flowers, meats, fish, bakery items. Sunday is better than Wednesday! called the Marche Parisien de la Creation - some of the artists are Americans - everything from textile and pottery to oil, acrylic, and watercolor Statue (Separation of a Couple)
and Madeleine Church La Maison de la Truffe La Carpe Hediard La Maison du Chocolat All along this area are the de Entre Ciel et Terre Saturday, February 19, 200 Musee Carnavalet The Marais Place des Vosges Oh! Duo! Sunday, February 20, 2000 Roving Market Artist's Market	Rue Royale intersects with Rue St Honore 19 Place de la Madeleine 14 Rue Tronchet 21 Place de Madeleine 8 Blvd de Madeleine esigner's shops etc. Very 5 rue Herold 00 23 rue de Sevigne 54 avenue Emile-Zola Along Blvd de Grenelle Blvd Edgar Quinet Pl Raoul Dautry	Tuileries, Concorde, Madeleine Madeleine Havre- Caumartin Madeleine elegant and chic Louvre-Rivoli, Bourse St Paul Charles- Michels Dupleix, La Mott Edgar Quinet	9A-8P 9:30A-6:45 P 8A-10P 9:30 -7 area! A lot of the second of the	Th-M W10-10 M-Sa T-Sa & M afternoon M - Sa of embassies M-F Tu-Sun Wed, Sun Every Sunday	According to Rick Bridgforth Rue St Honore has "The Best Shopping!" Maxim's is on Rue Royale before you get to St Honore. Across the street is La Chaume - the most wonderful flowers! Polo has a shop across from Madeleine Church. From Polo shop, walk around the church to the right, turn down street, on your left will be a mall with great shops. Note for Pat - go across street from Polo shop, around left side of square, through passage to a Swiss shop. Get a black leather band with cow on it for Rick's new puppy as a collar. 10 1/2 inches to a hole. fresh truffles through March Food Lovers Guide page 323 *Pat thought it smelled funny in here! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 360 *Not as good as other places we've been! Gourmet cheeses, marzipan, spices, vegetables! JUST GO BY FOR THE EXPERIENCE! WOULD LOVE TO SEE ONE IN RICHMOND! p 305 & 306 Food Lover's Guide to Paris s are here! A vegetarian restaurant we got out of Cheap Eats! The food was only OK and the service poor - they were overwhelmed by a group as large as ours! I would skip this one! First thing in the morning, we all split up. Mike and Glenn went to E. Dehillerin to make their purchases. Pat went off to La Samarataine. Kimberly went to the Eiffel Tower. We all met back at hotel by noon for our next day of fun! History of Paris, rooms also decorated in period authenticity. Go in AM however, some rooms close in afternoon if they lack volunteers. This is a do not miss! Eyewitness Guide p96-7 Wonderful area to walk and gawk noce the site of jousting and tournaments, a square of perfect symmetry We had a great meal here within walking distance of our hotel! Cheap Eats, page194. A roving market set under the elevated Metro, full of fruit, vegetables, flowers, meats, fish, bakery items. Sunday is better than Wednesday! called the Marche Parisien de la Creation - some of the artists are Americans - everything from textile and pottery to oil, acrylic, and watercolor Statue (Separation of a Coup
and Madeleine Church La Maison de la Truffe La Carpe Hediard La Maison du Chocolat All along this area are the de Entre Ciel et Terre Saturday, February 19, 200 Musee Carnavalet The Marais Place des Vosges Oh! Duo! Sunday, February 20, 2000 Roving Market Artist's Market Cimetiere du Montparnasse	Rue Royale intersects with Rue St Honore 19 Place de la Madeleine 14 Rue Tronchet 21 Place de Madeleine 8 Blvd de Madeleine esigner's shops etc. Very 5 rue Herold 00 23 rue de Sevigne 54 avenue Emile-Zola Along Blvd de Grenelle Blvd Edgar Quinet Pl Raoul Dautry	Tuileries, Concorde, Madeleine Madeleine Havre- Caumartin Madeleine elegant and chic Louvre-Rivoli, Bourse St Paul Charles- Michels Dupleix, La Mott Edgar Quinet Edgar Quinet Edgar Quinet	9A-8P 9:30A-6:45 P 8A-10P 9:30 -7 area! A lot of the second of the	Th-M W10-10 M-Sa T-Sa & M afternoon M - Sa of embassies M-F Tu-Sun Wed, Sun Every Sunday	According to Rick Bridgforth Rue St Honore has "The Best Shopping!" Maxim's is on Rue Royale before you get to St Honore. Across the street is La Chaume - the most wonderful flowers! Polo has a shop across from Madeleine Church. From Polo shop, walk around the church to the right, turn down street, on your left will be a mall with great shops. Note for Pat - go across street from Polo shop, around left side of square, through passage to a Swiss shop. Get a black leather band with cow on it for Rick's new puppy as a collar. 10 1/2 inches to a hole. fresh truffles through March Food Lovers Guide page 323 *Pat thought it smelled funny in here! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 360 *Not as good as other places we've been! Gournet cheeses, marzipan, spices, vegetables! JUST GO BY FOR THE EXPERIENCE! WOULD LOVE TO SEE ONE IN RICHMOND! p 305 & 306 Food Lover's Guide to Paris are here! A vegetarian restaurant we got out of Cheap Eats! The food was only OK and the service poor - they were overwhelmed by a group as large as ours! I would skip this one! First thing in the morning, we all split up. Mike and Glenn went to E. Dehillerin to make their purchases. Pat went off to La Samarataine. Kimberly went to the Eiffel Tower. We all met back at hotel by noon for our next day of fun! History of Paris, rooms also decorated in period authenticity. Go in AM however, some rooms close in afternoon if they lack volunteers. This is a on ont miss! Eyewitness Guide p96-7 Wonderful area to walk and gawk once the site of jousting and tournaments, a square of perfect symmetry We had a great meal here within walking distance of our hote!! Cheap Eats, page194. A roving market set under the elevated Metro, full of fruit, vegetables, flowers, meats, fish, bakery items. Sunday is better than Wednesday! called the Marche Parisien de la Creation - some of the artists are Americans - everything from textile and pottery to oil, acrylic, and watercolor Statue (Separation of a Coupl
and Madeleine Church La Maison de la Truffe La Carpe Hediard La Maison du Chocolat All along this area are the de Entre Ciel et Terre Saturday, February 19, 200 Musee Carnavalet The Marais Place des Vosges Oh! Duo! Sunday, February 20, 2000 Roving Market Artist's Market Cimetiere du Montparnasse Tour Montparnasse	Rue Royale intersects with Rue St Honore 19 Place de la Madeleine 14 Rue Tronchet 21 Place de Madeleine 8 Blvd de Madeleine esigner's shops etc. Very 5 rue Herold 23 rue de Sevigne 54 avenue Emile-Zola Along Blvd de Grenelle Blvd Edgar Quinet Pl Raoul Dautry	Tuileries, Concorde, Madeleine Madeleine Havre- Caumartin Madeleine elegant and chic Louvre-Rivoli, Bourse St Paul Charles- Michels Dupleix, La Mott Edgar Quinet Edgar Quinet Edgar Quinet	9A-8P 9:30A-6:45 P 8A-10P 9:30 -7 area! A lot of the second of the secon	Th-M W10-10 M-Sa T-Sa & M afternoon M - Sa of embassies M-F Tu-Sun Wed, Sun Every Sunday	According to Rick Bridgforth Rue St Honore has "The Best Shopping!" Maxim's is on Rue Royale before you get to St Honore. Across the street is La Chaume - the most wonderful flowers! Polo has a shop across from Madeleine Church. From Polo shop, walk around the church to the right, turn down street, on your left will be a mall with great shops. Note for Pat - go across street from Polo shop, around left side of square, through passage to a Swiss shop. Get a black leather band with cow on it for Rick's new puppy as a collar. 10 1/2 Inches to a hole. Fresh truffles through March Food Lovers Guide pages 323 *Pat thought it smelled funny in here! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 360 *Not as good as other places we've been! Gourmet cheeses, marzipan, spices, vegetables! JUST GO BY FOR THE EXPERIENCE! WOULD LOVE TO SEE ONE IN RICHMOND! p. 305 & 306 Food Lover's Guide to Paris are here! A vegetarian restaurant we got out of Cheap Eats! The food was only OK and the service poor - they were overwhelmed by a group as large as ours! I would skip this one! First thing in the morning, we all split up. Mike and Glenn went to E. Debillerin to make their purchases. Pat went off to La Samarataine. Kimberly went to the Eiffel Tower. We all met back at hotel by noon for our next day of fun! History of Paris, rooms also decorated in period authenticity. Go in AM however, some rooms close in afternoon if they lack volunteers. This is a do not miss! Eyewitness Guide p96-7 Wonderful area to walk and gawk once the site of jousting and tournaments, a square of perfect symmetry We had a great meal here within walking distance of our hote!! Cheap Eats, page 194. A roving market set under the elevated Metro, full of fruit, vegetables, flowers, meats, fish, bakery items. Sunday is better than Wednesday! called the Marche Parisien de la Creation - some of the artists are Americans - everything from textile and pottery to oil, acrylic, and watercolor Statue (Separation of a Cou
and Madeleine Church La Maison de la Truffe La Carpe Hediard La Maison du Chocolat All along this area are the de Entre Ciel et Terre Saturday, February 19, 200 Musee Carnavalet The Marais Place des Vosges Oh! Duo! Sunday, February 20, 2000 Roving Market Artist's Market Cimetiere du Montparnasse Tour Montparnasse	Rue Royale intersects with Rue St Honore 19 Place de la Madeleine 14 Rue Tronchet 21 Place de Madeleine 8 Blvd de Madeleine esigner's shops etc. Very 5 rue Herold 23 rue de Sevigne 54 avenue Emile-Zola Along Blvd de Grenelle Blvd Edgar Quinet Pl Raoul Dautry	Tuileries, Concorde, Madeleine Madeleine Havre- Caumartin Madeleine elegant and chic Louvre-Rivoli, Bourse St Paul Charles- Michels Dupleix, La Mott Edgar Quinet Edgar Quinet Edgar Quinet	9A-8P 9:30A-6:45 P 8A-10P 9:30 -7 area! A lot of the second of the secon	Th-M W10-10 M-Sa T-Sa & M afternoon M - Sa of embassies M-F Tu-Sun Wed, Sun Every Sunday	According to Rick Bridgforth Rue St Honore has "The Best Shopping!" Maxim's is on Rue Royale before you get to St Honore. Across the street is La Chaume - the most wonderful flowers! Polo has a shop across from Madeleine Church. From Polo shop, walk around the church to the right, turn down street, on your left will be a mall with great shops. Note for Pat - go across street from Polo shop, around left side of square, through passage to a Swiss shop. Get a black leather band with cow on it for Rick's new puppy as a collar. 10 1/2 inches to a hole. fresh truffles through March Food Lovers Guide page 323 *Pat thought its melled funny in here! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 360 *Not as good as other places we've been! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 360 *Not as good as other places we've been! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 360 *Not as good as other places we've been! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 360 *Not as good as other places we've been! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 360 *Not as good as other places we've been! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 50 *Not as good as other places we've been! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 50 *Not as good as other places we've been! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 50 *Not as good as other places we've been! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 50 *Not as good as other places we've been! Just off Place de Madeleine, find items you didn't know you need Food Lover's Guide pg 60 *Not as good as